

Dance, Chance, Romance

Junior Senior

Oh no, here comes the new girl in town
I told you all night how t' get the girl
I told you how to make toes curl
For once I'm gonna try not to cramp my style
I know you're kinda pretty but I like that smile

But you wanted to dance
So I might take a chance
Hoping for a little romance
Singing 'yeah yeah yeah' x2
Hallelujah hallelujah

I wonder what you're doing tomorrow night
Wonder if we'll ever hold each other tight
Coming to the party standing by the gate
Did I get here early, or did I get here late?

But you wanted to dance
So I might take a chance
Hoping for a little romance
Singing 'yeah yeah yeah' x2
'Cause I just wanna be your boyfriend

Mirror mirror on the wall, tell me who's the cutest one of them all
Looking down, I'm looking up
Walking right past you, my heart begins to stop

But you wanted to dance
So I gave you that glance
And we ended up holding hands
Singin'
Hallelujah hallelujah
Singing 'yeah yeah yeah' x2
Oh hallelujah hallelujah

We had some good good times at the borderline
When you held my hand
We had some good good times with our new found love
Yeah, I think you understand
But then you let me go x7
(Let me go again) x5
