

Lay Your Head

Júníus Meyvant

Bound for glory, made for you
Voice of summer told me to

Lay your head underneath my wing

I got the sun sky, waiting on revival
Hole in my chest, ready to be filled
Without your love, I'm all out
Ready to be lonesome

I just lay my head underneath your wing

Lay down your guns
Let it all out, take one on the chin for me
Hold down your breath
Sink down low, take one in the temple
Let yourself be free

Lay your head underneath my wing

I got a hole in my chest
Ready for an answer
Waiting on release
Sun in disguise
Ready for revival today
Let myself unleash
Swallow your breath
Ready to sink down low
Hang yourself on me
The hole in the sky
Is ready for revival today
Waiting on true peace

I lay my head underneath your wing
Just lay your head underneath my wing
