

Mighty Backbone

Júníus Meyvant

Woah oh Night's like this
Down in an east
Right there where I belong
Woah oh Night's like this
Born with a kiss
Breakdown suicide bomb

Until the edge of the world
I seek the mighty backbone
Of true peace
Come stir the water
Running through the backbone
Of true peace

Woah oh Night's like this
Fall on my knees
In way of my head
Woah oh night's like this
In east of this
Sun is up down the cafe

Until the edge of the world
I seek the mighty backbone
Of true peace
Come stir the water
Running through the backbone
Of true peace

Woah oh oh oh woah
In way of my head
Woah oh oh oh woah
Sun is up down the cafe

Until the edge of the world
I seek the mighty backbone
Of true peace
Come stir the water
Running through the backbone
Of true peace
Woah oh

Come stir the water
Come stir the water
Come stir the water
Come stir the water
Come stir the water
