

denial

juno

I'm way too drunk for this
But you been starin' at me all night long
I can tell from your face and the way that you're placed
That you're really tryna break my heart
I can't cry about spilled milk
I know you got a whole man and he's pissin' you off
Oh, you really wanna piss him off-off?
Let me tell you something

I'm in denial and everybody here knows it, I know You're so inviting, I fight it, but don't oppose it, I know
When the clock strikes two and the club packs up, what am I gon na do? (Eh, eh)
When the clock strikes two and we all go home, isn't that man t here for you?

Ahh, overconsumption, I hate how much I love it
You tell him "It was nothing", but you hide your face in public
You hit my phone last night, I had to tell you it's over
I gotta find a way to get sober, I don't know how you got so bo ld
I'm tryna get warm, but it's still so cold
We take it to the club, 'cause that's all we know how to do
That's really all that we know how to do, oh, girl
You brought your friends for this, you're hopin' that makes him sick
I can't lie you're so sadistic, I can't lie I'm so conflicted

'Cause I'm way too drunk for this
But you been starin' at me all night long
I can tell from your face and the way that you're placed
That you're really tryna break my heart
I can't cry about spilled milk
I know you got a whole man and he's pissin' you off
Oh, you really wanna piss him off-off?
Let me tell you something
