

And somehow it gets worse
Every time I open up my mouth, I lose the words
And it stings so bad it burns
And these drinks won't calm my nerves
But anything might make it easier
Make it easier

Do you want to make it easy for me?
Boy, I thought I told you
I can only give you pieces of me
Everything I love just ends up bleeding on me
Please just hold your tongue on what you're feeling for me
It won't make it easy for me

Oh, you could make it easy
You can make it easier
I know it's never easy
But you can make it easier

Too much smoke in my lungs
(I feel) Everything all at once
(I can't) Tell who's side that you're on
(I hate) Everyone in this club
(I'm like) Walking-talking bad luck
(You're like) Everything that I want
(I lost) Everything where from I am from
Oh, lover could it get more wrong?

It feels like time moves slow
Days go on forever in this heaven
I know
Oh, I know
And it feels like I can't cope
And nothing gets better
Unless you let it
I know, I know

Oh, you could make it easy
You can make it easier
I know it's never easy
But you can make it easier
