

falling

juno

I wish I'd kept those texts that
You wrote me far from home
I don't need closure I need
Answers to why I'm alone
And my family's reaching out but I can't answer the phone
'Cause I'm barely eating, barely sleeping
It's so terrible
I'm falling, falling, falling
For you baby
I've been calling, calling, asking
Are you maybe?
Are you still falling, falling
Falling for me lately
'Cause I am
I'll wait right here for your hand
Until I die, my Moirai
