(NewLove)

I was so, I was outside
A bottle in my hand
A pretty woman on my side
There's bruises on her skin
But she has stars up in her eyes
I'm the worst kind of guy
But if she asked me, I'd die for her

And that's the part they don't know
You think it's for show, I can't help it no more
I wanna be your favorite boy
Let me be your favorite boy
I could be your favorite boy
(Favorite boy, favorite boy, favorite boy)
Oh, truth be told, she's like heaven to hold
If you asked me, I'll go, but I need you to know
I wanna be your favorite boy
Let me be your favorite boy
I could be your favorite boy
(Favorite boy, favorite boy, favorite boy)

Sensitive, girl, you know I'm sensitive
I know I did you bad before, I know I set a precedent
You're right, I was vile
But take my hand, girl, I need you tonight
We could dance under the city lights
Nothing was the same after I met you
(Favorite boy, God, I gotta be your favorite boy)
Aphrodite, can't you empathize?
How the fuck could I ever forget you?
(Favorite boy, God, I gotta be your favorite boy)

I was so, I was outside (I was outside)
A bottle in my hand
A pretty woman on my side (On my side)
There's bruises on her skin
But she has stars up in her eyes
I'm the worst kind of guy
But if she asked me, I'd die for her (Oh, I would die)

And that's the part they don't know
You think it's for show, I can't help it no more
I wanna be your favorite boy
Let me be your favorite boy
I could be your favorite boy
(Favorite boy, favorite boy, favorite boy)
Girl, did you know she's like heaven to hold
If you asked me, I'll go, but I need you to know
I wanna be your favorite boy
Let me be your favorite boy
I could be your favorite boy
(Favorite boy, favorite boy, favorite boy)

I wanna be your favorite boy
Let me be your favorite boy

I could be your favorite boy
Hahahaha
