

hero

juno

It's two AM, girl, are you up yet?
And she like boy you know you fucked up
We can never go back
And she move different, acting suspect
And she think I can be her hero
I can never be that

At all, 'cause I get stabbed in the back
I tried my best to clear my head but I can never do tha-a-a-at
At all, I can't go back to the past
And I don't wanna be the bad guy but I think I might have to
I'm stuck like a statue
You said, "I don't see you"
And yet I'm looking right at you
You're done with the attitude
I'm not even mad at you
She said I'm her hero
I know she don't think that's true

Took a step back, what does it look like from the outside?
And to be honest I don't wanna learn 'bout your last guy
I tried my best but I still end up on my last life
There's never gonna be a right time

And you can blame me if you want but you know
That there won't ever be a next time
I take an Uber, take the next flight
I won't be nothing like the next guy

At all, 'cause I get stabbed in the back
I tried my best to clear my head but I can never do tha-a-a-at
At all, I can't go back to the past
And I don't wanna be the bad guy but I think I might have to
I'm stuck like a statue
You said, "I don't see you"
And yet I'm looking right at you
You're done with the attitude
I'm not even mad at you
She said I'm her hero
I know she don't think that's true
