

Sometimes I wonder if you ever think about it
Then I remember that you said to move on
Well, last September, I was fine with how that sounded
But last September, I was always so gone
I'm overthinking, like, was I in the wrong?
I guess the writing's always been on the walls
You said you'd never decline if I call
But I called last night and it rang so long

And all the lights in the room went out (Went out)
I'm looking 'round, like, what do I do now? (What do I do now?)
I started singing, but it never made a sound (Made the sound)
It felt like no one ever wanted me around (Me around)
'Til I met you ('Til I met you)
Picked me up and gave me someone to confess to (Someone to confess to)
And looking back, I wonder if you ever meant to (You ever meant to)
'Cause now you're texting me "I wish I never met you"
I'm still-

Sometimes I wonder if you ever think about it
Then I remember that you said to move on
Well, last September, I was fine with how that sounded
But last September, I was always so gone
I'm overthinking, like, was I in the wrong?
I guess the writing's always been on the walls
You said you'd never decline if I call
But I called last night and it rang so long
Sometimes I wonder if you ever think about it
Then I remember that you said to move on
Well, last September, I was fine with how that sounded
But last September, I was always so gone
