Jupiter

Drenched in greed foolish humans will start the wars that showe r their blood

Everything that was built up in history disappears (In a flash of light)

Mother Nature is spit on and dirtied, skies are covered in smog Stripped of life, the emptiness will keep on spreading out (Til l there's nothing left)

Eating into where we were born with countless amounts of sins
The universe will become ours with endless desires

We the masters of destruction multiply without a control Unknowing or uncaring? Demolish our own world (Just because we can)

Rays of death shoot into our land and poisons all of the lives Fragile balances thrown off, as the countdown begins (To the cu rtain call)

Humans have bitten into all the forbidden fruits of life
It's time to pay for all the wrong that we have all done

You will pay (For what you've done)
Pray
You won't be forgiven
