

Cuz Bought A Benz

Jordan Bryant

Yeah, uh, yo, yeah
My cousin bought a Benz I just want to do the same
Wood grain going insane
I remember I would go and get it 10th [?]
10th grade my niggas moving work I'm ashamed
How many of us getting booked get it how you live?
If my brother hungry, he could have a rib
I was at your crib, seen an empty space in your fridge
But your daughter had food on the bib, that's life shit
Me, I chose to get personal on the mic sense
I could pin you a versus who on some light shit
I was rapping when the lights flickered
Hoping that I could be a generator for the generation
No they want to see us apart, like segregation, huh
Me, myself and I overly dedicated
Tried to smoke weed to level me out
Hated how I felt kept a couple voice notes to myself
Why God roam the streets bumping fly God
Work with my moms hate to see a punch of time clock
She playing Jill Scott from my iPod
Wish that I could make the time stop, on my block
Plus friends that I grew up with, gone now wonder who up next
A compound what I want what's real
A song now hope you play it just to feel, real

You can get what you need if you want (what you want)
You can even have peace if you want (what you want)
Easy, low key said and done (said and done)
Believe, all you need is the thought
You can get what you need if you want (what you want)
You can even have peace if you want (what you want)
Easy, low key said and done (said and done)
Believe, all you need is the thought

11:11 all we do is set precedent
To the homie in the hand me down Cressida
Gas up take it where they ain't expect you to?
What you destined to do, this what's best for you
I know at times you would look up at the sky
Enjoy the ride, fuck the noise outside cause inside is what you better do
It's profit in the process
Food for thought you should digest
Seen a lot through my time yes
Still a lot, just the process
Still alive think I'm here to subside stress
Besides that, who am I?
Truth and lies don't define that
When you're combat, it's a war on pride I'm sending bomb threats
Tell me who won't ride, who beside that I need a vibe check, if it's a problem, we can solve that If you need a why I provide that

You can get what you need if you want (what you want)
You can even have peace if you want (what you want)
Easy, low key said and done (said and done)
Believe, all you need is the thought
You can get what you need if you want (what you want)

You can even have peace if you want (what you want)
Easy, low key said and done (said and done)
Believe, all you need is the thought
For real
