

ENOUGH

Jurdan Bryant

I know you think about a lot of things you say you don't Today I wanna pose, I weigh the pros, the cons, the questions t hat nobody knows What we doin' on the regular, nobody chose Pushed beyond bounds, basically you feel exposed
When you hungry take the fork up out the fuckin' roll
I been havin' soul, I was never sold, I'm in a better mode, ano ther episode

Ay, I thought I was enough, thought I was enough, I thought I w as enough, You thought I wasn't Ay, I thought I was enough, you thought I wasn't, you thought I wasn't, you thought I wasn't

I thought this was a conversation I was ready for, I guess I ne ver caught signals fallin' out the sky, it was a heavy pour This the sound of when you penetrate levy door, a nigga never s aw
I could see it on a sepia tone, back in LA you never sleep on t he floor
Three years straight I had to keep the rapport, shit was way be fore I peeped the allure

Shit, I thought it was enough, caught up in your touch
I thought it was enough, you thought I wasn't (Shit) I thought I was enough, thought it was a rush, I thought it was enough, you thought I wasn't (Shit)

Who do you trust? Where do you run to?
What do you want from me this time?
Who do you trust? Where do you run to?
What do you want from me this time?
