

INTRO

Jurdan Bryant

Sending this message because
You haven't returned my calls or my texts
And, like, I'm a little concerned
Like, are you good?
Like, what's going on?
I know you're not, the best at communicating
But, it's a little bit considerate
I mean, you know, I just got off work, tired but Pair's done and makeup's done, I'm ready, to be picked up
So like, you should be here
Uhm, need to call me back, Text me back

Hey, hey, now see if I care this [?]
My apologies stuck in a ladder and
I'm hanging on by a thread
By a snare, off the strips
How you been? How them kids?
How your friends? How does it end?
Too good to me, too good for them
I would then, I'm told then
We called you now, we touring now
It's all eventful, It's all I'm into
You called me out
I thought you moved on
It's a lot, while owning this [?]
That's how you pick on
I still listen, when you be tripping
This, this, this, this, this

Its just the way you know a ring on the phone
When do you know something is wrong?
When do you know if you care at all?
Its just the way you know a ring on the phone
When do you know something is wrong?
When do you know if you care at all?
