

Beautiful

Juris

Slowly, patiently
Sneaking up on your pretty face
But don't pretend or ignore like you don't know
To me you're such a beauty
Far more than just wonderful
So please don't go behind the walls
I might slip and drop on the floor
Daily, obviously
I come back surely you notice
A stranger told me, I'm wasting my time
See i don't mind cause
To me you're such a beauty
Far more than just wonderful
So please don't go behind the walls
I might slip and drop on the floor
Standing here, still daydreaming
If we can be just friends or lovers maybe
Wishing this can be reality
