

Why do hearts come and go?
Why do hearts just to hurt each other.
No matter what it is, I realized it just made me stronger.

So today, I'm letting go with my mind and heart wide open.
Today, I jump right in and do it.

Mistakes will break me, got so much love to give and take.
I've made up my mind, believed tomorrow will be fine.
I choose to be me, just simply love and live free.

Happiness is something you will have after your heart's been broken.
Happiness is certainty when you choose to be.
No matter what it is, I live through it, I will not lose me.

So today, I'm letting go with my mind and heart wide open.
Today, I jump right in and do it.

Mistakes will break me, got so much love to give and take.
I've made up my mind, believed tomorrow will be fine.
I choose to be me, just simply love and live free.

So today, I'm letting go with my mind and heart wide open.
Today, I jump right in and do it.

Mistakes will break me, got so much love to give and take.
I've made up my mind, believed tomorrow will be fine.
I choose to be me, I choose to be happy, I'll simply love and live free.
