

Faucet

Just Friends

I'm so filled with hate, I wish I could change
Say they can't recognize my face
It's all my fault, I'll take all of the blame
Sorry now is all I can say

I'm so filled with hate, I wish I could change
When I see me now I don't know what 2 say
I'm trying so hard I try everyday
Sorry now is all I can say

Head in the faucet, I'm circling the drain
The hate that I feel, I'm trying to change
