

New House

Just Friends

I ain't even make it off the jetway
Phone's been on blast like all day
Why you gotta do this? Try to test me
Right when I touch down got anxiety
Follow signs out of the terminal
JFK is a different animal now
Baggage claim's like a war zone
Glad I packed light clothes, I'm on my own
I'm on my own

I want a brand new house
Something I cannot buy, something I can't afford
Something I can't afford
(Something I can't afford)
(I want a brand new house)
(Something I can't afford)
(I want a brand new house)
(Something I can't afford)

I just want a long, long shower
And I been feeling so crowded
My bad, I think I saw your text
My bad, here's my new address
Stay for me, stay for me
Is there a reasoning?

My question is
What role does our happiness play?
How does our own happiness, what does our own happiness have to do with
The happiness of the world?
What does our own happiness have to do with the suffering of th ose far away from us
In the world?
