

Trouble to Share

Just Jack

I've been here on my Jack Jones
Steady waiting by the bat phone
I'm getting lost in the red tones (yeah)
Another world in my headphones (yeah)
I keep thinking of the old you
And everything I could have told you
It never seemed to be the right time
Now it's forgotten like a cold brew

And I'm getting worried about you
Because I can't tell if you're telling me
The whole truth about everything
That's going on with you anyway

Call me up if you're feeling low
I'm not going nowhere, you got trouble to share
Call me up, give me a piece of your mind
I'm never going nowhere (I'm not going), I got nothing but time (nowhere)

So many people trying to kill time
I can't believe it's not dead yet
Are you filling in a crossword, or are you whittling a chess set
How you dealing with the distance? (Distance)
Or are you hiding from the neighbors? (Neighbors)
Only another ghost in a ghost town
Twenty-eight days later (ooh-ooh-ooh)

And I'm getting worried about you
Because I can't tell if you're telling me
The whole truth about everything
That's going on with you anyway

Call me up (call me up) if you're feeling low (yeah)
I'm not going nowhere (if you're feeling), you got trouble to share (low)
Call me up (call me up), give me a piece of your mind (yeah)
I'm never going nowhere (I'm not going), I got nothing but time (nowhere)

And I'm getting worried about you
'Cause I can't tell if you're telling me
The whole truth about everything (call me up)
That's going on with you anyway

Call me up (if you're feeling) if you're feeling low (low)
I'm not going nowhere (call me up), you got trouble to share (yeah)
Call me up (I'm not going), give me a piece of your mind (nowhere)
I'm never going nowhere (going), I got nothing but time (nowhere)

Call me up if you're feeling low
I'm not going nowhere, you got trouble to share
Call me up, give me a piece of your mind
I'm never going nowhere (I'm not going), I got nothing but time (nowhere)
