

Find You Out Again

Just Surrender

Fate, you can't escape
Your sins will find you out again

They say there's honor among thieves
But none lies in accessories

I'm at the end of my rope
My neck is tangled in
I want my feet on the ground
But I'm still dangling

What's the point
Of running away?

Fate, you can't escape
Your sins will find you out again
(Your sins will find you out again)
That's the price you pay
It's written all over your face
You tell me by the way you're shaking
You're afraid that they would find you out

Pick up the pieces
Walk away
Before you find
It is too late

Tie me to the tracks
My train is coming in
Face to face with death
The only time I have lived

Fate, you can't escape
Your sins will find you out again
(Your sins will find you out again)
That's the price you pay
It's written all over your face
You tell me by the way you're shaking
You're afraid that they would find you out

Fate, you can't escape
Your sins will find you out again
(Your sins will find you out again)
That's the price you pay
It's written all over your face
(Your sins will find you out again)
Fate, you can't escape
Your sins will find you out again
You tell me by the way you're shaking
