

Anymore

Justifide

I'm not your little toy anymore
So you can't play with my mind
So go on and head on your way
I don't need this right now or anymore

Yeah, I'm out the door
I've wasted all my time on you
Well, I should have known
Both me and you were so into you
And I can't take it anymore, yeah

And I need someone else one who cares about myself
The one that wants me because of me
And you can take your stupid, rock star dream and run away
'Cause I don't need you, don't need you anymore

Yeah, I'm out the door
I've wasted all my time on you
Well I should have known
Both me and you were so into you
And I can't take it anymore, yeah
