

Bad Honey

Justin Bieber

And does it feel nice
The way you turn heads when you walk in the room?
'Cause you look like, good Lord
Yeah, the dress so long, I think you should

And if you did anyway, you look so good, uh
And you give me the rights, you know I would, uh
And if you mean anyways something to me
We can dance, honey, we can make this a scene

And anyway
I want you to stay, baby
And anyway
I want you to stay, oh

I might just go give you my loving, uh
I might give you a piece of my mind, uh
I might just go 'head, do somethin'
Baby girl, you're makin' me, makin' me sing

And if you did anyway, you look so good, uh
And you give me the rights, you know I would, uh (I would, baby
)
And if you mean anyways something to me (Something to me)
We can dance, honey, we can make this a scene, babe

And anyway
I want you to stay, baby
And anyway
I want you to stay (Alright, baby, uh, yeah)
And anyway
I want you to stay, oh
And anyway
I want you to stay

I might just go give you my loving, uh
I might give you a piece of my mind, uh
I might just, uh
