

DEVOTION

Justin Bieber

I'm startin' to be open to
The idea that you know me too
I like when you hold me to ya
I like when you scold me too, ah

When your lips and fingernails are on mine
And I know that I should be going running, devotion
And you're flickin' another red shout on me, oh
On the old patio and I get on Utopia

I'd rather take the long way home (Baby, I need it)
So we can laugh and sing a couple more songs (You're so sweet to me, girl)
Stay up late and watch your favorite shows (I carry you)
There's a way you cover up your clothes

When your lips and fingernails are on mine
I promise to take my time givin' you devotion
When something's wrong, you can tell me 'bout the whole thing
If you call out to me, I'll swing, leave the door open for me

Ooh, I like it when you rock me steady (Just like a baby)
I get all manic when you talk to me, I'll wait
We're out of red alert if you're movin' your body
Don't waste another day, go get your box, honey
And if you kiss me, I might yell out, "Hallelujah"
If you miss me, I'm runnin' right to ya, givin' you devotion
And if you touch me, I might holler like, "Oh, man"
Baby, play another slow jam, give me some devotion

Sweet
Sweet, all day
Sweet, all day, devotion
Sweet
Sweet devotion
