

Die For You

Justin Bieber

She's a stranger to the night shift
The type of girl you only dream about
I was lost under the lights yeah
An angel in the flames, she pulled me out
Next time that I ge ge ge ge get her, I'ma tell her in every kind of way

I would walk through burning fire
Even if your kiss could kill me
You know I would die for you
Yeah I would die for you

Pain and passion, my desire
You're the right now and what will be
You know I would die for you
The rest of my life for you
Ye-ye-ye-yeah
(I would die for you)

She's a danger to the masses
Displaced and stretched it out in every way
Crossing every line yeah
T-T-Touch base until you find the chemistry
And I know this ain't rocket science
And I never leave the house
Without checking on you first
And begin to wonder
Next time that I ge ge ge ge get her, I'ma tell her In every kind of way

I would walk through burning fire
Even if your kiss could kill me
You know I would die for you
Yeah I would die for you

Pain and passion, my desire
You're the right now and what will be
You know I would die for you
The rest of my life for you
Ye-ye-ye-yeah, yeah
Oh, I would die, I would die, I would die
Oh, I would die, I would die, I would die

I would walk through burning fire
Even if your kiss could kill me
You know I would die for you
Yeah I would die for you

Pain and passion, my desire
You're the right now and what will be
You know I would die for you
The rest of my life for you
Ye-ye-ye-yeah, yeah

Yeah
Yeah
I would die for you
