

Loved By You

Justin Bieber

I bought a castle in France, and
It's the same one I built in the sand for you
When I was two

I thought I painted a picture of heaven
But it turns out
It's just your room
Just your room

I run off the end of the earth
Just to see if you catch me
When I know you'd let me fall every time

All I do
Is wish that I could change myself
Wish that I could change but
All I do
Is wait around and hate myself
Oh I hate the way
I need to be loved by you
I wish that I could change myself
Wish that I could change but
All I do
Is wait around and hate myself
Oh I hate the way
I need to be loved by you
(I need to be loved by you)
(I need to be loved by you)
(I need to be loved by you)
(I need to be loved by you)

I remember when we started datin'
The only thing that you were me was chasin'
The kinda lovin' that they couldn't play with
You know my lovin' is an everyday thing, baby
And when we in different places
Textin' and messagin' and talkin' crazy
When I'm with you I feel like it's a daydream
That's how I know that you will always be my baby

All I do
Is wish that I could change myself
Wish that I could change but
All I do
Is wait around and hate myself
Oh I hate the way
I need to be loved by you
I wish that I could change myself
Wish that I could change but
All I do
Is wait around and hate myself
Oh I hate the way
I need to be loved by you

I've walked a thousand miles
I've opened every door
It's not enough

It's still your love I'm always looking for
It's just the way I'm wired
Whether I'm wrong or right
I've only got one thing on my mind
I need to be loved by you

(I need to be loved by you)
(I need to be loved by you)
(I need to be loved by you)
(I need to be loved by you)
