

Stress

Justin Bieber

You're the only girl that I see
I'm the only guy that you need
And there's a viable term in me
Said you want this
Don't text, take a deep breath
'Cause I don't need you to stress, hey hey
Baby, don't stress
Stress out over me

So when I invite you
Baby don't shy, oh
Open your mind, don't knock it till you try it, darling
Show of, when you come closer
Don't waste no time, I need it every minute darling
Oh, believe in me
Guaranteeing in my loyalty
How many times you don't want me to leave?
Want me to leave, no

You're the only girl that I see
I'm the only guy that you need
And there's a viable term in me
Said you want this
Don't text, take a deep breath
'Cause I don't need you to stress, hey hey
Baby, don't stress
Stress out over me

Oh, oh, no
Let's take it slow
From the bottom to the top to the options so loud
No need to turn up
Like the echo from your voice set the world shook
Every zoning step will achieve
Don't hesitate to follow my lead
How many times you don't want me to leave?
You don't want me to leave, no

You're the only girl that I see (only girl I see)
I'm the only guy that you need (I'm the only guy that you need)
And there's a viable term in me
Said you want this, want this
Don't text, don't text, take a deep breath, take a deep breath
'Cause I don't need you to stress
I don't need you to stress out over me, hey hey
Stress out over me
Baby, don't stress over me
