Unstable

Justin Bieber

Sometimes I think I overthink
And I start to feel anxiety
There were times I couldn't even breathe
But you never once abandoned me

I tried to scare you
Scare you away
Showed you the door
You adored me anyway
When I was broken in pieces
You were my peace of mind
You were my peace of mind

Yeah you love, yeah you love, you loved me
When I was unstable

Never judge, never judge, never judged me
When I was unable
To love myself, to trust myself

Yeah you love, yeah you love, you loved me
When I was unstable

White knuckles tryna own my sanity
Not every wound is the kind that bleeds
Never know when my mind's gonna turn on me
But you're the one I call for security
These memories have been toxic
I tried to ween and get off it
Through everything you been my rock
I think you're the only thing I didn't get wrong
Oh I know God was listening
Every night when I would pray
You're an angel watching over me
All I need

I tried to scare you
Scare you away
Showed you the door
You adored me anyway
When I was broken in pieces
You were my peace of mind
You were my peace of mind

Yeah you love, yeah you love, you loved me
When I was unstable

Never judge, never judge, never judged me
When I was unable
To love myself, to trust myself

Yeah you love, yeah you love, you loved me
When I was unstable
