

Undone

Justin Courtney Pierre

I was pulling hard at the seams
And the whole thing came undone
"Happy New Year", someone said to me
And the whole thing came undone

Hey, I won't lead the party today
I have nothing new to relay
There is only sadness
It always ends this way

I was facing into the crowd
And the whole thing came undone
"Taco Tuesday", someone yelled at me
And the whole thing came undone

Hey, not all beasts that battle are brave
One by one, we march to the grave
There is only sadness
It always ends this way

I was scratching after the itch
And the whole thing came undone
"Hallelujah", someone prayed at me
And the whole thing came undone

Hey, what the fuck you trying to say?
Teardrops just get lost in the rain
There is only sadness
It always ends this way
