

King of Everything

Justin Garner

Heard the people say I have it all
To know it's quit the truth
Yeah I need a queen to route it all
I think I finely found it in you
Fight like a champion to claim your heart in you
Baby, where the finest have undone?
Then it all done for you
Roll down and rafter, swing down the chandelier
Your king is here
Like the candelabra, on that I'm after
The time is here
I give you all I got
See baby I have everything
But honey there is nothing
Take the world if you want it
Cuz I'm king of everything
Yours, yours, yours, yours, yours
But that don't mean a damn thing,
Without you I am anything
I feel a light shining on
Shoulda wait to hear from you
Just say the word I'm counting you
To tell me what you want me to do
Take my knife and die here girl
Had the wind to care for you
And nobody has t have you
It can take my life but again I wanna take a change with you
Roll down and rafter, swing down the chandelier
Your king is here
Like the candelabra, on that I'm after
The time is here
I give you all I got
See baby I have everything
But honey there is nothing
Take the world if you want it
Cuz I'm king of everything
Yours, yours, yours, yours, yours
But that don't mean a damn thing,
Without you I am anything
Like a man how broke you one time again
He left you with this love on point
And took away your proud
I'm here to save you
Come get up in my kingdom
Ah, where we are flying high
But our hearts into the sky
Pay
I give you all I got
See baby I have everything
But honey there is nothing
Take the world if you want it
Cuz I'm king of everything
Yours, yours, yours, yours, yours
But that don't mean a damn thing,
Without you I am anything
