

Love Strikes Twice

Justin Garner

I used to think I'd never find it
So we lose it from the gripping hands
And then I felt a spark of lightning
I never felt the same again
Cause I'm afraid to lose the feeling of it
Your love is all I want
Before I was an idiot
Cause I didn't take it serious

You love me but I don't know why
It hurts me when you leave my side
When love strikes twice
When love strikes twice

I never wanted another lover
Your kisses got me running for cover
And I don't wanna lose it all without you knowing, yeah yeah
I'm good as long as we got each other
Cause your heartbeat, it sing to me
Every breath you breathe
I lift you off your feet
'Til we find a place where true love meets

You love me but I don't know why
It hurts me when you leave my side
When love strikes twice
When love strikes twice
You better get a hold on your heart
You better get a hold on your heart
When love strikes twice

My heart can't take it if, take it if
You were gone
But true love will come again, come again
Don't let it go

You love me but I don't know why
It hurts me when you leave my side
When love strikes twice
When love strikes twice
You better get a hold on your heart
You better get a hold on your heart
When love strikes twice
