

She Ain't Mine No More

Justin Moore

Look at her over there just laughing
Like I ain't even in this bar
Doing a number on this Friday night
Like she ain't never broke a heart
So I just ordered up a double
To put a little hurry on this drunk
'Cause I'm hating what I'm seeing
Oh, she's showing everyone

She ain't mine no more
Done got her moving on, moving for sure
It's clear as day and here tonight
Like a letting go long-gone neon sign
She ain't mine no more
She ain't walking back through my door
She ain't drinking my wine or kissing my lips
And that dress ain't hitting the floor
She ain't mine no more

Yeah, I'd be slipping a band of twenty
To play her favorite one 'bout now
And I'd be slipping a whisper in her ear
To see if she wants to slip on out

She ain't mine no more
Done got her moving on, moving for sure
It's clear as day and here tonight
Like a letting go long-gone neon sign
She ain't mine no more
She ain't walking back through my door
She ain't drinking my wine or kissing my lips
And that dress ain't hitting the floor
She ain't mine no more

There ain't no more wanting me in her eyes
Ain't no more her in my arms tonight

She ain't mine no more
Done got her moving on, moving for sure
It's clear as day and here tonight
Like a letting go long-gone neon sign
She ain't mine no more
She ain't walking back through my door
She ain't drinking my wine or kissing my lips
And that dress ain't hitting the floor
She ain't mine no more, oh
She ain't mine no more
