

You Keep Getting Me Drunk

Justin Moore

I drive past my house on my way home
'Cause you're not there
I start a tab and keep it going
'Cause you don't care
I keep picking up this drink 'cause you won't
Pick up the phone
I keep trying to drown your memory
'Cause it won't leave me alone, baby

You keep getting me drunk
Left me nothing to hold but this whiskey in my cup
How can I get over us when I can't even sober up?
You keep getting me, you keep getting me drunk
Keep getting me drunk, keep getting me drunk, yeah

I'm gonna wake up with bloodshot eyes
It's all your fault
I'll never get to work on time
If I got at all
I'll be here till they kill the lights
Every night's the same
Your kiss ain't here to get me high
So you're the one to blame, baby

You keep getting me drunk
Left me nothing to hold but this whiskey in my cup
How can I get over us when I can't even sober up?
You keep getting me, you keep getting me drunk

I know I'm the reason that you're gone
But baby, you're the reason that I'll be here all night long

'Cause you keep getting me drunk
Left me nothing to hold but this whiskey in my cup
How can I get over us when I can't even sober up?
You keep getting me, you keep getting me drunk
You keep getting me drunk, keep getting me drunk, yeah
You keep getting me drunk, keep getting me drunk, babe