

Master I've got no time
After I give you mine
I've traveled far and wide
I won't give up this time

There's a place
In the wood
Where the wise man said the natives live
And my name
Carved in stone
In their language come Ababayo

Ababayo