

Rains It Pours

Justin Nozuka

Come, let's do this, darling
I know this life has been a lot
Enough I'm on, my darling
Falling real hard must feel like
The way that I feel it now for you

I could stay
Where you lay
Just loving you like this for a minute
Loving you
I could stay
Where you lay
Forever
(When it rains it pours)

Come, let's do this, darling
I know just what I feel like
Oh, we're right there, darling
Got nothing wrong it feels right

Come to the back of the line
Feeling wise in your eyes I'll be patient
Ain't no way I'm mourning now
Ain't no way I'm mourning now
Come the way we talk all the time
We can be mean, but it's alright
I never wanna go away

I could stay
Where you lay
Forever, forever...
I could stay
Where you lay
Forever
Cause it feels like I've been waiting here all my life

For your love
Yeah, your love
For real love
For real
That real love
For real love
For real
For real love...
