

Sleepless

Justin Nozuka

Laid on the line
Let the hours pass by
Letting the hours run dry
The way that you say
Where you lay you may die
I know it might pass me by

Steering away from reality like
Like my soul is caught drifting
In a river run dry

On my own
Don't need anyone else
It's enough
Between heaven and hell
Are you still in love
When you're all by yourself
It's enough
Don't need anyone else

I was in the flow before we started
Fuckin' on the low before we started
Left it on the road
What a change

Bags are on the floor just where you left them
One foot out the door
The way we live it
What a shame

Steering away from reality like
Like my soul is caught drifting
On a river run dry

On my own
Don't need anyone else
It's enough
Between heaven and hell
Are you still in love
When you're all by yourself
It's enough
Don't need anyone else

Don't need anyone else
Don't need anyone else
Don't need anyone else
Don't need anyone else
