

Bite My Tongue

Justin Stone

Yeah, I'ma bite my tongue
Looks like, looks like only I could get you done
And I need to give my life back to the son
God, I'm sorry, I'm so sorry when I run
I'ma bite my tongue
Looks like, looks like only I could get you done
And I need to give my life back to the son
God, I'm sorry, I'm so sorry when I run

Wait until the fall comes, I got tracks on deck
So I put these girls back on a rack, yeah, yeah
Bombshell at my crib, right when it's all done I wish that she'd left
Been thinking with my dick too much
These critics give me lift too much, yeah, yeah
So I punch holes in a wall way until my fist bleeds
See my finger on the trigger like, "would they miss me, huh?"

I'ma bite my tongue
Looks like, looks like only I could get you done
And I need to give my life back to the son
God, I'm sorry, I'm so sorry when I run
I'ma bite my tongue
Looks like, looks like only I could get you done
And I need to give my life back to the son
God, I'm sorry, I'm so sorry when I run

I can't help, I'm this way
God with me, help me cope with the pain, yeah, yeah
Been a few months since I prayed
[?], but I'm fucking sleeping again
Wake me up, I'm feeling lazy as shit
Ain't heard a church boy talk as crazy as this
You ain't never heard something this bluff from my lips
I just stop carrying what they would say about me, so here I am

I'ma bite my tongue
Looks like, looks like only I could get you done
And I need to give my life back to the son
God, I'm sorry, I'm so sorry when I run
I'ma bite my tongue
Looks like, looks like only I could get you done
And I need to give my life back to the son
God, I'm sorry, I'm so sorry when I run

I won't bite my tongue no more
I won't bite my tongue no more
I won't bite my tongue no more
I won't bite my tongue no more

And everything I'm saying be real
Everything I'm saying is changing lives
If you're feeling like me
Just know that you're not alone
You're not alone

I'ma bite my tongue
Looks like, looks like only I could get you done

And I need to give my life back to the son
God, I'm sorry, I'm so sorry when I run
I'ma bite my tongue
Looks like, looks like only I could get you done
And I need to give my life back to the son
God, I'm sorry, I'm so sorry when I run

I won't bite my tongue no more
I won't bite my tongue no more
I won't bite my tongue no more
I won't bite my tongue
