

Dead Inside

Justin Stone

Yeah, leave me out, out to dry, (Dry, dry)
I'll be fine
Pray to God, but what am I? (What am I, I?)
Dead inside; ask myself why I'm alive
Tell me why, ask myself why I'm alive
Yeah, tell my why
Leave me out, out to dry, (Dry, dry)
I'll be fine
Pray to God, but what am I? (What am I, I?)
Yeah, dead inside; ask myself why I'm alive
Tell me why (Tell me why), ask myself why I'm alive
Yeah, tell my why

Someone prepare for the truth
That's all gonna rise when I'm back in the booth
I'ma tell you something, you won't say another season, 'nother face
Cross my heart, I swear I'm finally different now, I swear I changed (Uh)
Yeah, beg for your braces, slap your face
Go right back into that routine that got me into this place
I thought I was learning lessons, guess I fooled you, yeah
Look at my reflection like I knew you
(But I don't, but I don't, yeah)
(But I don't, yeah)

(Woo!) Yeah, leave me out, out to dry
I'll be fine
Pray to God, but what am I? (What am I?)
Dead inside; ask myself why I'm alive
Tell me why, ask myself why I'm alive
Yeah, tell my why
Leave me out, out to dry, (Out to dry, dry)
I'll be fine
Pray to God, but what am I? (What am I, I?)
Dead inside; ask myself why I'm alive
Yeah, tell me why, ask myself why I'm alive
Yeah, tell my why

Maybe, Lord, I need a change
I can't help that I'm addicted to acquiring these plays
Find my work behind my likes, (Uh) know it's toxic to my life (Yeah)
My self-esteem has been hurting even though I got it right
I got it made (I got it made), I got everything I've wanted, still I crave (Still I crave)
Everything I never needed, but I'll change (But I'll change)
At least, at least that's what I tell myself
I'm okay, I tell myself-but you know me, I need some help

Leave me out, out to dry
I'll be fine
Pray to God, but what am I?
Dead inside; ask myself why I'm alive
Tell me why, ask myself why I'm alive
Tell me why
Yeah, leave me out, out to dry, (Dry, dry)
I'll be fine
Pray to God, but what am I? (What am I, I?)

Dead inside; ask myself why I'm alive (Why am I here? Yeah)
Tell me why, ask myself why I'm alive (Why am I here? Yeah)
Yeah, tell my why
Leave me out, out to dry, (Dry, dry)
I'll be fine
Pray to God, but what am I? (What am I, I?)
Yeah, dead inside; ask myself why I'm alive (Why am I here?)
Tell me why, ask myself why I'm alive (Why am I here?)
Yeah, tell my why
