

kick it

Justin Stone

I just need someone to kick it
I just need someone to kick it, yeah
We on and off again
Back and forth
Used to wonder why my head was spinnin'
Leave my windows tinted, rollin' big joints
Now I just need someone to kick it
Kick it
Kick it

Cause I miss you too
I got no roof, do stupid shit
I got no rules, I'm CEO, like fuck you too
Her friend DMed like "fuck me too", that shit made me feel like I'm cool
I find my worth in girls like you
Lookin' back at my trip, I did this shit big for something they missed
Don't know where it is, I'm back on my shit
Remind me of when I didn't have this, now look, I can't miss
Big joints, now I'm on ten, yeah
Only got hits, where the fuck have you been?
They mad that I got shit on lock, yeah
They mad that I got shit on lock, like

We on and off again
Back and forth
Used to wonder why my head was spinnin'
Leave my windows tinted, rollin' big joints
Now I just need someone to kick it
We on and off again
Back and forth
Used to wonder why my head was spinnin'
Leave my windows tinted, rollin' big joints
Now I just need someone to

I hit it once and it's mine, that is my standard
Gave her an Uber and she gave me Stanford
Y'all was poppin', I do what I like
Bet when I make it you'll come out the woodwork
You talkin' shit, just make sure that you good first
She swear she don't do this, she swear she a good girl
Kamikaze, catch a body, send a text, she just left her ex for me, pressin' me
Probably thinkin' less of me, I'm real as fuck, quit stressin' me
All facts, it's true, Imma sue me, she wanna do me too
Money in the air like it just don't care
Why you think I ain't here and the whip low lie
Used to curve my ass, what the fuck 'bout now?

We on and off again
Back and forth
Used to wonder why my head was spinnin'
Leave my windows tinted, rollin' big joints
Now I just need someone to kick it
Na-na-na-na-na, kick it
Kick it
