

No Time

Justin Stone

Got no time to be
Got no time to be
Got no time to be
No time
No time

When I drop what's next
You'll say you saw it coming
It's ironic
They saw I'm rising
Now they loving
Was that guy
Those ladies passed on
If I'm not next
Your facts are wrong
Packed that crowd
They pack that loud
They spend cash
I fast on
Ya

Got no time to be faded
Got no time to be worried
Thank God that they hated on me
I'm still young but I'm grindin' so I see
So I see why they banking on me
Got no time to be faded
Got no time to be worried
Thank God that they hated on me
I'm still young but I'm grindin' so I see
So I see why they banking on me

No time n-no
N-no time
No time
No time n-no
N-no time
No time

Long awaited from that rise
Where I'm supposed to be
Girls that curved me yesterday
Suddenly got close to me
Fade away from drama
Till my face is where that poster be
I've been burning speakers
Think I belong where that toaster be Masterpiece
Every bar I spit
That's just common sense
I deserve everything
They tell me I'm about to get
Make that dough
Then watch it grow
Saving what I don't invest
It's okay I know they hate me
Everybody hates success

Got no time to be faded
Got no time to be worried
Thank God that they hated on me
I'm still young but I'm grinding so I see
So I see why they banking on me
Got no time to be faded
Got no time to be worried
Thank God that they hated on me
I'm still young but I'm grinding so I see
So I see why they banking on me

No time n-no
N-no time
No time
No time n-no
N-no time
No time

If they want a feature
Boy they better come correct
I've got bills up on my table
Growing up's enough to stress
Took a leap of faith
I said no degree I'll make my own
Graduated honors in my bedroom
About to take the throne
Started with no fan base
Had no clue I'd be up on that map
I was dreaming for a break
Now my city's on my back
Long way from that basement
They said I would never make it out
Yeah we came a long way
I said I'd make it out

Got no time to be faded
Got no time to be worried
Thank God that they hated on me
I'm still young but I'm grinding so I see
So I see why they banking on me
Got no time to be faded
Got no time to be worried
Thank God that they hated on me
I'm still young but I'm grinding so I see
So I see why they banking on me

No time n-no
N-no time
No time
No time
