

Only One

Justin Stone

Tell me I'm the only only one that you ever wanted
That you ever wanted
Tell me I'm the only only one that you ever wanted

I'm insecure I push 'em out before they got in Guess I'm just an artist that will never be content
The mirror can do more damage than an AK47
But some reason I still look in it
Comparing myself to the trend
Yeah, I'm up now
But when it ends
Where the hell did they go
Fuck a heartbreak
Better alone
I pray to God
But when I die where I go
I'm so tired of putting up with this bullshit
And posting like I'm okay
I doubt she's sleeping alone
Every time that I am away
I live for these double standards
'Cause honestly I'm the same, yeah
'Cause honestly I'm the same
I hide my fear in the numbers
Like one day it might just end
I get everything
You wonder why I've never been content
You tryna tell me I'm perfect
But I am not listening

Tell me I'm the only only one that you ever wanted
That you ever wanted
Tell me I'm the only only one that you ever wanted
That you ever wanted
Tell me I'm the only only one that you ever wanted
That you ever wanted
Tell me I'm the only only one that you ever wanted

Yo, I've been where you're at
I know how it goes
Drinks on the road
That turn to fucking these hoes
Don't want to be alone
Things get out of control
I feel the guilt in my chest
I disappointed my soul
I get fulfillment from girls I see in these films from my shows
I seen the world in a month
And captured it all on my drone
She wonderin' what it's like
She never gets out of her home
She get upset when she callin'
I rarely pick up the phone
Yo, I had to do better than that
But I was about getting the cash
My motives done shifted
As I keep living

I know I can't visit the past
Know I don't need to look back
What meant to be will always be
I just hope it's you and me
The only one I ever see
In my dreams, I don't sleep
Now I'm woke
I had girls, plenty girls
But they all was a joke
Yeah they all did the most
Had me all on they posts
I want you, you want me
Can we be what we supposed to

Tell me I'm the only only one that you ever wanted
That you ever wanted
Tell me I'm the only only one that you ever wanted
That you ever wanted
Tell me I'm the only only one that you ever wanted
That you ever wanted
Tell me I'm the only only one that you ever wanted
That you ever wanted
