You want that real, say no more
Say no more, say no more
You wanna vibe, say no more
Say no more, say no more
You want it all, say no more
Say no more, say no more
You want it real, say no more
Say no more, say no more

Fans want it, here it is Working trynna get rich
Labels finally heard the buzz
Now we the one in this script
Of course you know what it is Manifested this flip
Now we the ones that's next to blow
Never thought we'd get this

You want that real, say no more
Say no more, say no more
You wanna vibe, say no more
Say no more, say no more
You want it all, say no more
Say no more, say no more
You want it real, say no more
Say no more, say no more

21 pulling the numbers you can't, yeah yeah
Remember the days with no gas In my tank, yeah yeah
Two jobs made it work
No daddy money no one invested
Been a player since birth
Of course these women gon' flirt
Of course these women go swoon
Love me or love what I do
Either way this love is so overrated
So music I only want you
This is my passion my gift and my all
When they said, "Quit." I said, "Homie we'll ball"
They said I'd never make it and I laughed
Better watch out when records hit the wall, yeah

Said I would I got it done
Thought I told you I'm the one
Said I would I got it done
Thought I told you I'm the one, yeah yeah

You want that real, say no more
Say no more, say no more
You wanna vibe, say no more
Say no more, say no more
You want it all, say no more
Say no more, say no more
You want it real, say no more
Say no more, say no more
