

Slow Down

Justin Stone

Yeah, slow down, slow down (no)
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down (no)
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down (no)
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down
Slow down, slow down

Lost a couple friends, none would say it paid off (paid off)
This might become the album that I'm becomin' great off (great off)
You rely on beats, so I'm yellin', "Turn the bass off"
Stab my back, homie, you gon' make me burn a bridge
You get high to write me while I ain't burnin' shit (no)
I should probably move on, but I never make amends (no)
Five year plans, make a couple M's
Wife with the pool, happy with a couple kids
Used to hate commitment, now I wanna settle down
Funny how the fake ones come around
When they hear that you 'bout to run the town
I don't text back, so they got to run they mouth (run they mouth)
I don't got time for you lames, just a pay stub (pay stub)
Workin' on myself, prayin' that the gains come (gains come)
Nothin' makes me feel like the rain does
It's when it's cloudy that it always means the change comes

Yeah, slow down, slow down
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down (no)
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down (no)
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down
Slow down, slow down

Reflectin' on my life, tell me, is this right?
Skipped out on college and I skipped on your advice (yeah)
Everything you say you got, I probably got it twice (got it twice)
My ego out the window, I still live up to the hype (uh-yeah)
Made myself open for y'all, shit, I regret it (shit, I regret it)
You believe the industry because you fed it ('cause you fed it)
Things really gonna change if you let me in the game
I'ma talk about depression and the shit nobody say
First off, I believin' in God
I don't got it figured out, but at least I do try (I try)
I can't hide no emotions, I'm a sensitive man
Hopin' for it come, but story with no downfall to end
Why does money change us? I was happier poor (I was happier)
Anybody feel like they have been here before? (yeah)
I'm the voice for the ones that's dyin' to speak
Maybe music, maybe music is all that I need

Yeah, slow down, slow down
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down (no)
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down (no)

They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down
Slow down, slow down

Yeah, welcome to the fast life
Yeah, yeah, do you know about the fast life?
Yeah, honestly, I hate the fast life

Yeah, slow down, slow down
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down
They want me, they want me, they want me, they want me
Slow down, slow down
Slow down, slow down, yeah

And they say that
Everything that's movin' fast
Will all crash eventually
