Yeah yeah, yeah yeah
Yeah yeah, yeah yeah

All the way up, change the view now
In the spotlight, nothing new now
Old girl text me, never hit back
Shoot my shot quick, never miss that
All the way up, change the view now
In the spotlight, nothing new now
Old girl text me, never hit back
Shoot my shot quick, never miss that

Yeah yeah, eh

Run the city like I own it, own it
Found my misson now we rolling, rolling
Got my karma up, got it up
Feeling all alive
So many "told you so's", looks like we on the map
You cannot keep up with me, I put the heat on the beat
I can't help, y'all look stupid when y'all comparing to me yeah
Couple girls just down to do whatever I say
Say they want me for me, babe that's what they all say

All the way up, change the view now
In the spotlight, nothing new now
Old girl text me, never hit back
Shoot my shot quick, never miss that
All the way up, change the view now
In the spotlight, nothing new now
Old girl text me, never hit back
Shoot my shot quick, never miss that

Feel 'em hating from the side
Step into my life
I can't wait up for no one, I put ten's up on the side
Catch me on a flight, catch me if you can
Lately doing things that they don't understand
Money been the motive, yeah I know
I am on the level where I'm scared to blow
I don't know who really real
I keep my circle tight, it's lonely can I feel
Waste away, face a silent grave

I just check my shoulders, seen I overcame
Shadow always tryna take my place
Wonder why I'm you'll scared to leave me anyway

All the way up, change the view now
In the spotlight, nothing new now
Old girl text me, never hit back
Shoot my shot quick, never miss that
All the way up, change the view now
In the spotlight, nothing new now
Old girl text me, never hit back
Shoot my shot quick, never miss that
