

Thinking About It

Justin Stone

I never loved you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
You never saw me
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I never told you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I'm better off now, I'm better off now on my own

I never loved you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
You never saw me
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I never told you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I'm better off now, I'm better off now on my own

Yeah they blow up my inbox, couple groupies can't hind it
I've been all in my feelings, gotta fall and kept fighting
Only homies I ride with, long way on that come-up
Another hookup I regret, I feel depressed in my stomach
I pray to God again, I pray to God again
I cannot lie to him
I keep it real with you, real with you
Yeah the problem is I can't comprehend my blessings, know I've got it all Wish I could say that I feel you, but I feel nothing at all
Yeah

I never loved you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
You never saw me
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I never told you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I'm better off now, I'm better off now on my own

I never loved you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
You never saw me
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I never told you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I'm better off now, I'm better off now on my own

On my own
On my own, yeah
On my own, yeah
On my own, yeah eh

Either fall in love or they play me
That's the odds that I play now
Wouldn't say that I'm happy, just got great at that fake smile
Told my less I had it, she ain't never saw it
Bet she see me up right now and know that I ain't never falling

I never loved you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
You never saw me

Thinking about it, thinking about it
I never told you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I'm better off now, I'm better off now on my own

I never loved you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
You never saw me
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I never told you
Thinking about it, thinking about it
I'm better off now, I'm better off now on my own

On my own
On my own
On my own
