Lifestyles of the sick and brainless
Some die with the drugs, some die nameless
Everybody wanna be
What they see on the TV
Level up like they see, see
Tell me do you love me
KiKi, KiKi
The new drug is attention
Me, me, me, me

Now understand why your man double-tapping them
Every chick look like Kim Kardashian
Hit the surgeon, what can this buy me
Please, doc, make me look just like Kylie
Shorty rock you will never be them
Try as you might you will never be Kim
Riding my wave this is Adult Swim
They screaming "No cam!" I'm laughing at them
You don't have a surgery bitch, you're hella basic Staring in the mirror, disgusted, you can't face it
Pacing, cuz you wanna be a star
Get high, pop pills, forget who you are
What's the new fad, what's the new trend
Need some new friends, oh they getting money
What's the blueprint? What?
Cuz I just wanna follow your lead
I wanna be anyone else but me!

If I get a lot of comments, then you know I'm getting hype
And I'm jealous of the next girl, she got a better life
Oh, it's cool to be a lesbian, I'm getting into dykes
I do not know what brand that clothes on me
I walk around with a pack like a zombie
Throwing out shade now just like I was a palm tree
I'm looking up quotes for my IG like honey!
