

About Time

Justine Skye

Yeah, uh
Yeah, uh
It's about time
It's about time
Justine, uh

There's a lot I could say
You deserve the payback
Bad, but I can't runnin' back
So fast, at last on the strip
There's a lot I won't say
Don't wanna just react
Facts, this time I won't relapse
Knew that none of y'all had my back

I found a way out, and on your way out
Last words
I'm on the way up, and I'ma be straight, so
Don't worry 'bout it
You hide your face, can't stop talking 'bout it

Don't worry about a thing
'Cause it won't matter anyway
Bury my best
It's a new day
'Cause I know I can always count on you
To make me look stupid, make me look foolish
And I know I can always count on you
To let me down
Down, down, down

Okay, uh
Okay, uh

Okay, so now that we're through
I saw what's real, and knew was true
I followed me, I followed you
It's almost hot, 'cause you was new, but They'll all regret that
'Cause I'll be right back
Flyback, it's gon' be private
Funny to see
How they all undergraded me, ah

I found a way out, and on your way out
Last words
I'm on the way up, and I'ma be straight, so
Don't worry 'bout it
You hide your face, can't stop talking 'bout it

Don't worry about a thing
'Cause it won't matter anyway
Bury my best
It's a new day
'Cause I know I can always count on you
To make me look stupid, make me look foolish
And I know I can always count on you

To let me down
Down, down, yeah
