Push Ya

Justine Skye

I fucking came and leave it
Got me spinning game but that ain't me tho
I hit you everyday, I know you read 'em
But sometimes I do the same thing
Gotta let you know, let you know
I don't wanna get too close
Been lying to myself too long

Baby I try, try to act like I don't need you, baby I lie
See the truth is I want you 'cause
I'm tryna be the one, to make you fall
Tryna be the one, to make you fall
Even if I have to push ya, push ya, back (push ya, push ya, bac k)
Tryna be the one, to make you fall

I tried to die with you bullet
But when it comes to you, shit I couldn't You're the only one who understands me
Want your love, I need it badly
I can't let you go (let you go)
Don't let you go
Feeling you to say the least
Gotta keep you on a leash

Baby I try, try to act like I don't need you, baby I lie
See the truth is I want you 'cause
I'm tryna be the one, to make you fall
Tryna be the one, to make you fall
Even if I have to push ya, push ya back (push ya, push ya, back
Tryna be the one, to make you fall

(Push ya, push ya, back)
Push ya back
Push ya back
(Push ya, push ya, back)

I'm tryna be the one, to make you fall
Tryna be the one, to make you fall
Even if I have to push ya, push ya back (push ya, push ya, back
Tryna be the one, to make you fall

To make you fall
