

When You're Ready

Justine Skye

Why's it always me, who's on the losing side?
Thought they said that love was free
But I know I'll pay the price, once or twice

So don't run, run, run
If there's a problem
I know we'll solve it
I know you'll solve it
I-I-I know
It's all about timing
Nobody has the answers

In your mind and your soul
You know your right from wrong
I don't want you to think you're all alone
Let's keep it natural
Open doors, never close
Promise to set it free

I'll still wait for you (You)
Even though sometimes it feels like we're giving up
Still stay for you (You)
Ain't had nobody give you this kinda love
It's strange for you (You)
We fight, then we kiss, and then we make love
But I'm still made for you (You)
At the end of the day don't wanna wake up without me

Mmh, baby
I wanna know the words to say

Ooh, wait, wait
Baby don't run away, yeah
I don't know what to say, yeah
That'll just make you stay
Ooh, wait, wait
Baby don't run away, eh-yeah
I don't know what to say, eh-yeah
That'll make you stay

In your mind and your soul
You know your right from wrong
I don't want you to think you're all alone
Let's keep it natural
Open doors, never close
Promise to set it free

I'll still wait for you (You)
Even though sometimes it feels like we're giving up
Still stay for you (You)
Ain't had nobody give you this kinda love
It's strange for you (You)
We fight, then we kiss, and then we make love
But I'm still made for you (You)
At the end of the day don't wanna wake up without me
