

Pantheon

Justyna Steczkowska

We are in the pantheon of our nature We travel paths between the mask our tales written on ivory plates

the truth walks between you
the truth walks between you

unseen...

the truth walks between you
the truth walks between you and watch and wait in faith the truth...

the truth...

the truth walks between you

unseen.
