

Why, oh, why baby, don't you try
I walked away and you said goodbye
I don't wanna leave, babe
But you're making it easy

I slammed the door hoping you'd open it
Now I'm sitting by myself
Because my pride is an issue
But baby, I miss you
You called me back just to hang up on me
Our relationship's a mess
Because your pride is an issue
But baby, I miss you

Are you giving up tonight?
You won't even put up a fight, oh-oh-oh

Why, oh, why baby, don't you try
I walked away and you said goodbye
I don't wanna leave, babe
But you're making it easy
Why, oh, why baby, don't you try
I walked away and you said goodbye
I don't wanna leave, babe
But you're making it easy

I slammed the door hoping you'd open it
Now I'm sitting by myself
Because my pride is an issue
But baby, I miss you
I fled the scene hoping you'd follow me
Now I'm all by myself
Because my pride is an issue
But baby, I miss you

Are we giving up tonight?
You won't even put up a fight, oh-oh-oh

Why, oh, why baby, don't you try
I walked away and you said goodbye
I don't wanna leave, babe
But you're making it easy
Why, oh, why baby, don't you try
I walked away and you said goodbye
I don't wanna leave, babe
But you're making it easy
