

Sleeping Alone

k.d. lang

All my love, dusk is calling my heart
Come to bed, lay with me instead of sleeping alone
A chance like this is better taken when two lips
Brave a kiss, I insist, it's better than sleeping alone

Coffee in the morning
Tastes much better when you add a little cream
How about a shower?
We could both blow off a little steam

Coffee in the morning
Tastes much better when you add a little cream
How about a shower?
We could both blow off a little steam

Stay with me, that would be preferable to me
Don't you agree?
Come to bed, lay with me instead of sleeping alone
